Council Member Davis made a motion to approve the purchase of SCBA units from American Safety & Firehouse, seconded by Council Member Shiver. The vote was unanimous.

FY 2024-2025 LMIG & LRA LMIG ADDITIONS

The City's current road paving project was originally approved at a total cost of $1,110,871.00. Since the initial approval, two additional items have been identified as costeffective enhancements to the existing scope of work.

1. W. Railroad Street Widening:

This addition proposes widening W. Railroad Street by 2 feet on each side for approximately 0.65 miles.

This improvement was discussed during the preliminary review but not included in the RFP.

Cost: $73,091.25

2. Howard Street Resurfacing:

Howard Street is a one-way street located off Mize Street, which is already included in the current paving schedule. Adding this segment will improve connectivity and ensure consistent pavement conditions in the surrounding area.

Cost: $29,838.00

Council Member Adams made a motion to approve the additions to the FY 2024-2025 LMIG Project, seconded by Mayor Pro Tem Brown. The vote was unanimous.
